AVCRIOA User Manual
Student Manual
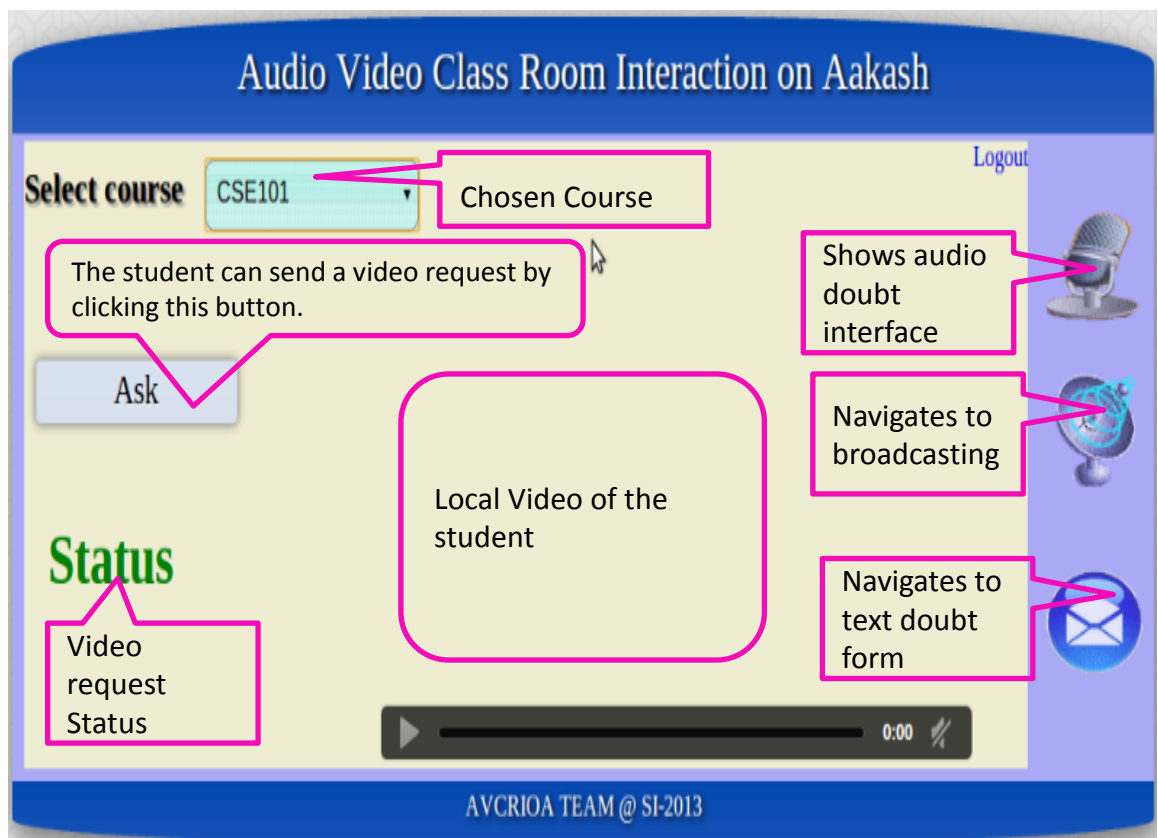

1. AVCRIOA application on aakash tablet.

2. Student Login screen on aakash tablet. Once the student successfully logs in, he will be prompted to open the browser.
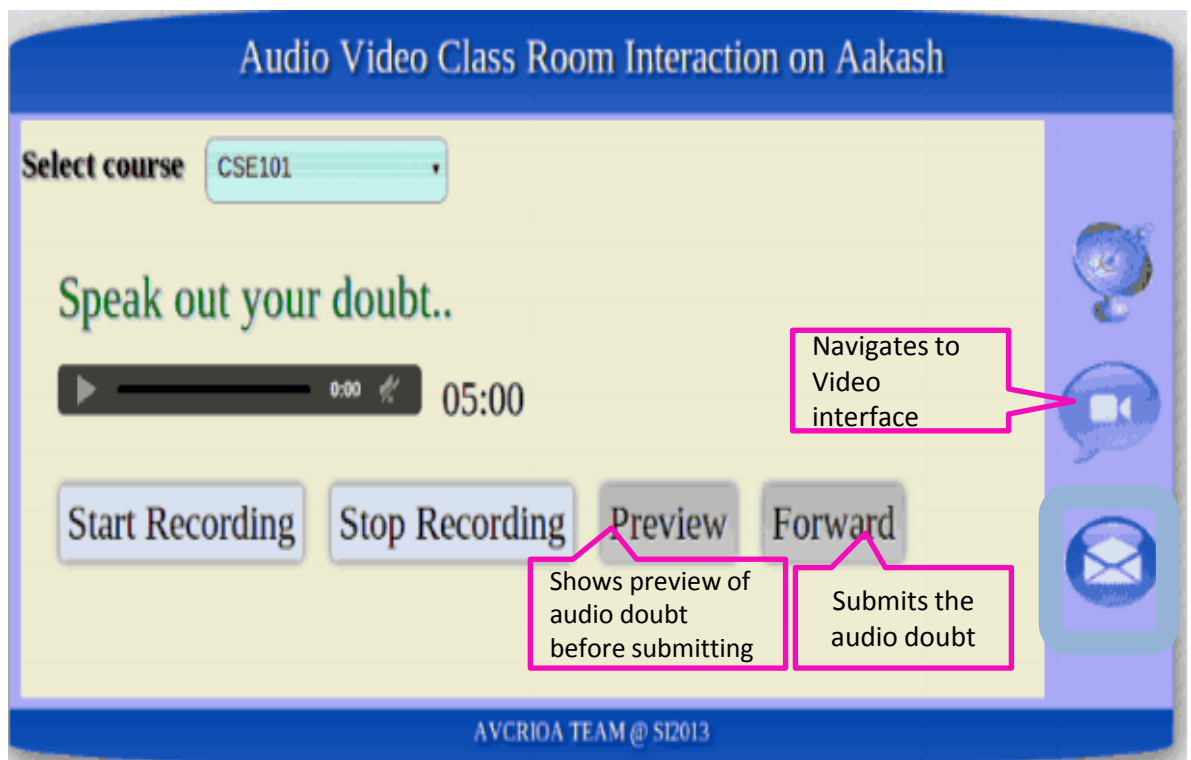

3. After login from the AVCRIOA apk this page will be shown to the student in the browser.

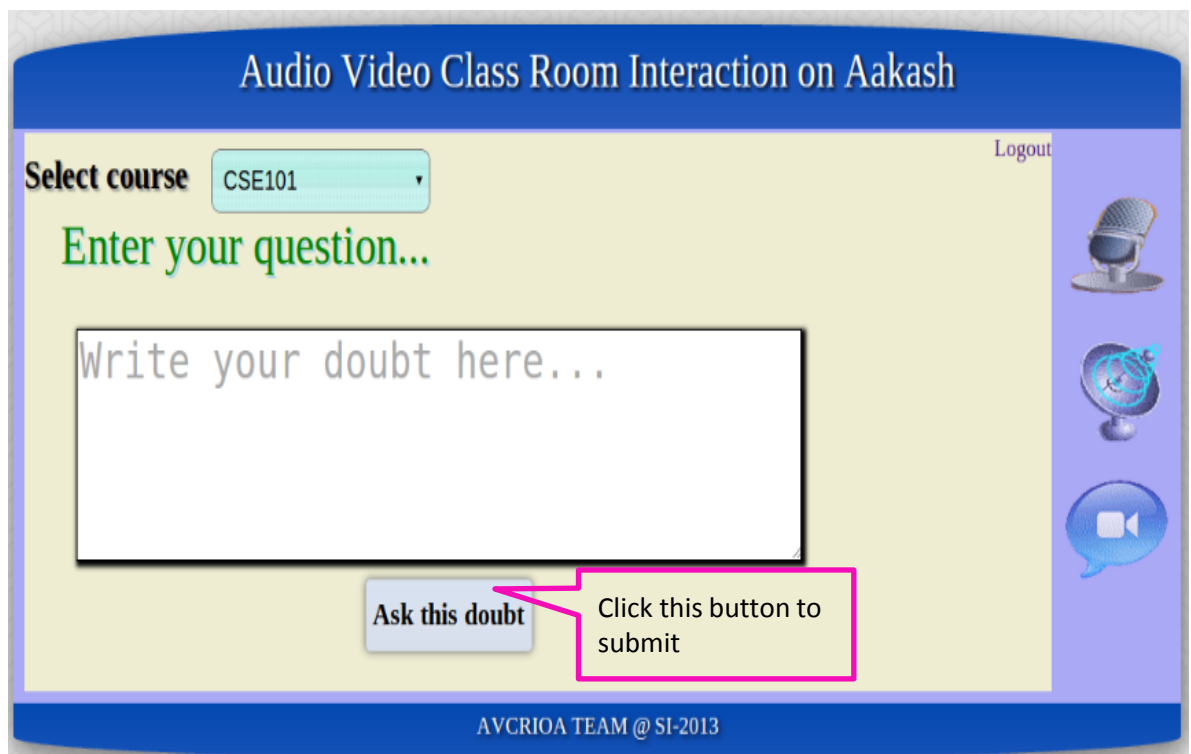

4. After choosing the course from the list of registered courses student will navigate to the Video Request interface where he can send a video request to instructor. After clicking
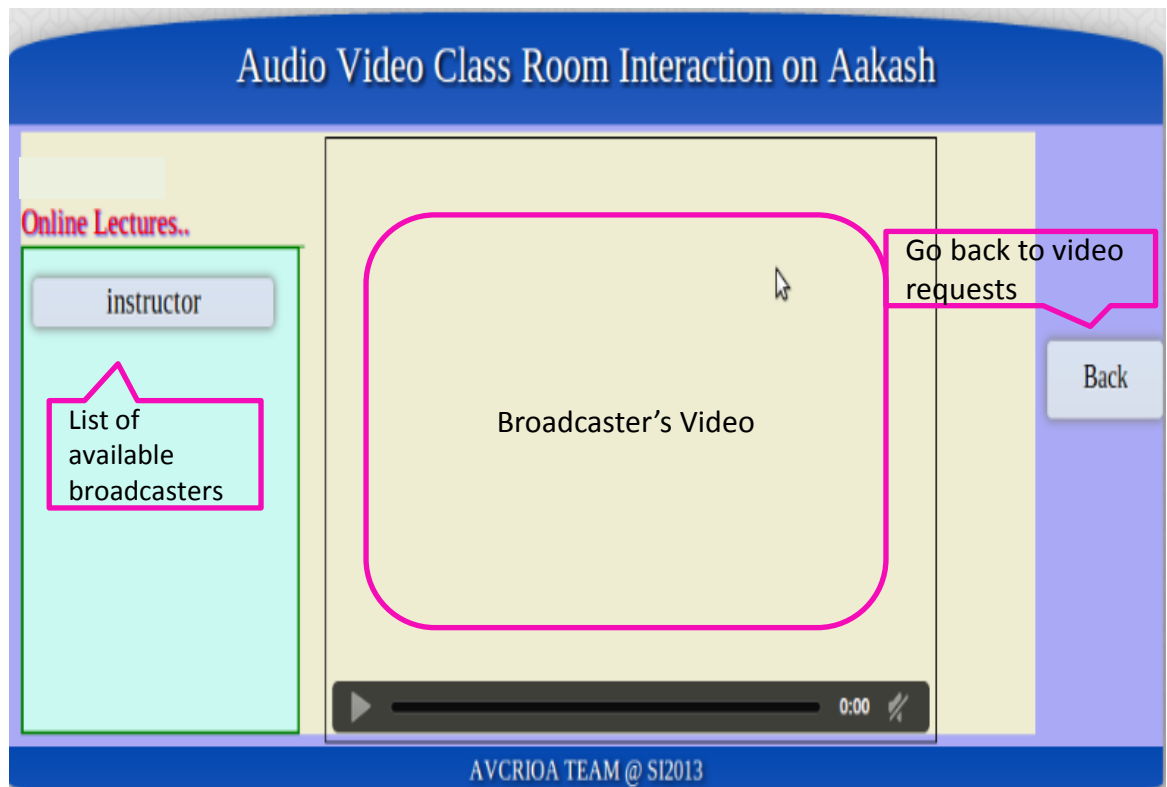

5. Interface for sending Audio GUI where he can record his doubt for 5 minutes and also preview (listen) his doubt and then forward (submit) the question.

6. Form for submitting textual question enter your question in text area and then press "Ask this doubt" for submitting your question.
7. This is the student page where he can see the broadcaster list and then he can select.

INSTRUCTOR MANUAL

1. Login page for instructor where instructor can give credentials to login.

2. Video Request view for instructor. In the left pane you can see list of video requests sent by the students. You can choose, switch and disconnect the student request.

3. You can see the textual doubts posted by students with their information like student ID , date and time. Once you press the Done button the question will not be displayed.

4. In this page List of audio doubts will be available with the duration. You can listen a audio doubt and its status will be displayed under "Status" tab

5. This is the broadcast page for instructor where he can start a broadcast